

Brighton and Sussex Medico-Chirurgical Society

Lecture program for 2009

Thursday 8th January 2009

Presidential Lecture: Stamping out ill health

Helen Smith

Professor of Primary Care, Brighton & Sussex Medical School

Thursday 5th February 2009

If not us, who? If not now, when?- clinicians' responsibility for tackling climate change

Dr Robin Stott

Consultant Physician and Vice-chair Medact

Thursday 5th March 2009

A return to fear: from the creation of the NHS to its destruction, and how the pursuit of trade has overridden health care needs

Prof Allyson Pollock

Director, Centre for International Health Policy, University of Edinburgh

Thursday 2nd April 2009

Saving mothers' lives

Prof James Drife

Obstetrician, writer and entertainer

Thursday 7th May 2009

The role of policy in the management of obesity

Prof David J Hunter

Director, Centre for Public Policy and Health

Thursday 4th June 2009

The science of quality improvement- the new challenge for the medical profession

Dr Martin Marshall

Deputy Clinical Medical Officer and academic GP

Thursday 1st October 2009

A little night club medicine; caring for clubbers' health in the 21st century

Dr Chris Luke

Consultant in Emergency Medicine, Cork University Hospital

Thursday 5th November 2009

Primary prevention of allergies: should we all lick the cat?

Prof Adnan Custovic

Professor of Allergy, Manchester University

Thursday 3rd December 2009

Bronchi and organ pipes- strange bedfellows

Dr Richard Godfrey

Respiratory Physician and Organ Consultant to the Diocese of Salisbury