“Bringing the Art back into Medicine”

Dr Laura Marshall-Andrews is a local GP who trained in Southampton and London. She is a keen proponent of Narrative Medicine. She founded The Brighton Health and Wellbeing Centre on Western Rd with Gary Toyne (managing partner) and Chris Dance (acupuncturist). The Brighton Health and Wellbeing Centre is the UK's first integrated GP practice and Healing Arts Centre. They run programmes in Literary Arts, Visual Arts and Performance Arts. The waiting room has an active Wellbeing Gallery exhibiting high quality work from a variety of artists. They won the GP 'Innovators of the Year' award in Nov 2014.
